The Essential Guide to Oregon's School Food Service

ZGuard. It's the most popular food guard on the market and there's a reason: Thousands of operators will tell you, "Nothing works better."

ZGuard | There is No Substitute

ZGuard has redefined the food guard. It protects food, but it's also an innovative merchandising tool that puts the focus on the food — not the hardware.

The unlimited height adjustability and full 360° degree rotation offers unparalleled control and precision that lets you move from self-service to full-service without tools or time.

The ability to reuse ZGuard on a new counter or in a new layout makes ZGuard a value that lasts for years. When budgets matter, ZGuard is the investment that pays dividends with each renovation.

Take ZGuard's style, innovation, and value along side BSI's legendary "no-matter-what-it-takes" customer service and it's obvious: There is no substitute.

When you demand value, innovation and excellence, demand the original.
Demand ZGuard.

Food Service Administrators By County and School District

The state's school food service administrators, directors, nutrition services managers and business contacts are listed as Food Service Coordinators (FSC) by county and district in alphabetical order. Wherever possible, FSC indicates that the individual identified holds the title of Food Service Coordinator, Food Services Director, and/or Nutrition Director. In some cases, particularly for smaller school districts or for those contracting their food service programs to suppliers such as Sodexo, individuals listed as FSC contacts hold the title of Superintendent, Business Manager, Business Secretary, Head Cook, or a related district administration title. Every effort has been made to list decision makers or primary contacts for Oregon school district foodservice programs.

This list is updated as of September 2012.

We wrote the book on turkey and gravy.

Check out the new edition.

JENNIE-O TURKEY STORE® Classic Turkey & Gravy

It's been one of our best sellers for more than 10 years. And now, with 23% less sodium than our 2011/2012 SY formula (600mg vs 460mg), our Turkey & Gravy is better than ever. What hasn't changed is the unsurpassed quality and lovable homestyle flavor. The fully cooked, boil-in-bag convenience. The amazing versatility that lets you serve it as is or in a host of speed-scratch creations such as pot pie, soups, and more. But why would you expect anything less from the number-one turkey company in school foodservice?

Utilizing advanced materials and innovative design, it provides extraordinary strength, increased durability and enhanced food safety.

- Composite material is as strong as steel
- 78" traverse is the longest and strongest in the industry; supports loads up to 600 lbs. per shelf
- Up to 60% lighter in weight than steel; easy to set up, adjust and change configurations
- Shelf plates are easily removed for thorough dishwasher cleaning
- Camguard® antibacterial protection is permanently embedded in shelf plates
- Non-porous surface simply wipes clean
- Lifetime warranty against corrosion and rust

Save water with the Salvajor Scrap Collector

Recirculated Water used for pre-flushing typically reduces water and sewer costs dramatically. The Collector consumes only 2 gallons of new water per minute while the pre-flushing water plume recirculates at a 30-gallon rate.

Scraping Speed is more than doubled compared to an overhead pre-rinse since the worker's hands are free for scraping.

Visit salvajor.com for info and videos of all our water saving products
