PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Food Service Administrators By County and School District

The state's school food service administrators, directors, nutrition services managers and business contacts are listed as Food Service Coordinators (FSC) by county and district in alphabetical order.

Wherever possible, FSC indicates that the individual identified holds the title of Nutrition Director, Food Service Manager or similar.

Every effort has been made to list decision makers or primary contacts for Oregon public school district and charter school nutrition programs.

(This list is updated as of Sept. 2023.)

Healthy food starts with a clean, safe kitchen.

Cleaning products aren't enough. You need a partner who also understands your operation, works with employees, provides onsite education and verifies that best practices are in use.

For one set cost, our customers receive:

- Education – Over 115 courses approved for School Nutrition Association Continuing Education Units that also help meet Professional Standards requirements.
- Verification - Evaluations throughout the year by a Certified SFSPac® Food Safety Specialist.
- Compliance – Including new OSHA HazCom Standard 2015 requirements.
- Certified Cleaners – All products are EPA registered or Green Seal® Certified.

SFSPac® - our cleaners are just the beginning.

Hi! We're Impossible Foods, and we make delicious meat, made from plants, for people who love eating meat, including students! We started learning about the K-12 space in Spring 2021, after three of our products got CN labeled. Since then, we have been listening and working with schools to learn more about K-12 foodservice, challenges and how we can help. In 2022, we launched a smaller version of our best-selling Impossible Burger, a 2.8 oz. fully cooked 2 M/MA patty, and we're coming out with a WG nugget in 2023.
